

1. Entering the online abstract submission system

CALL FOR PAPERS

Abstract submission

Presentations in all areas of rheology are welcome, both as oral and poster presentations. Presenters should submit a max one-page abstract to the Editorial office by January 31, 2025. Further instructions will be posted during the autumn of 2024. The abstracts will be compiled into a Book of abstracts available for all participants.

Submit your abstract here

If you encounter problems in submitting your abstract(s), please contact NRS President Olli-Ville Laukkanen for assistance. In case of problems, you may also try accessing the abstract submission system using different web browsers (e.g. Edge or Firefox).

Paper submission

After acceptance, participants will be invited to submit a manuscript for publication in the Annual Transactions of the Nordic Rheology Society (ATNRS). The full manuscripts for both posters and oral presentations will be published in the 33rd volume of the ATNRS.

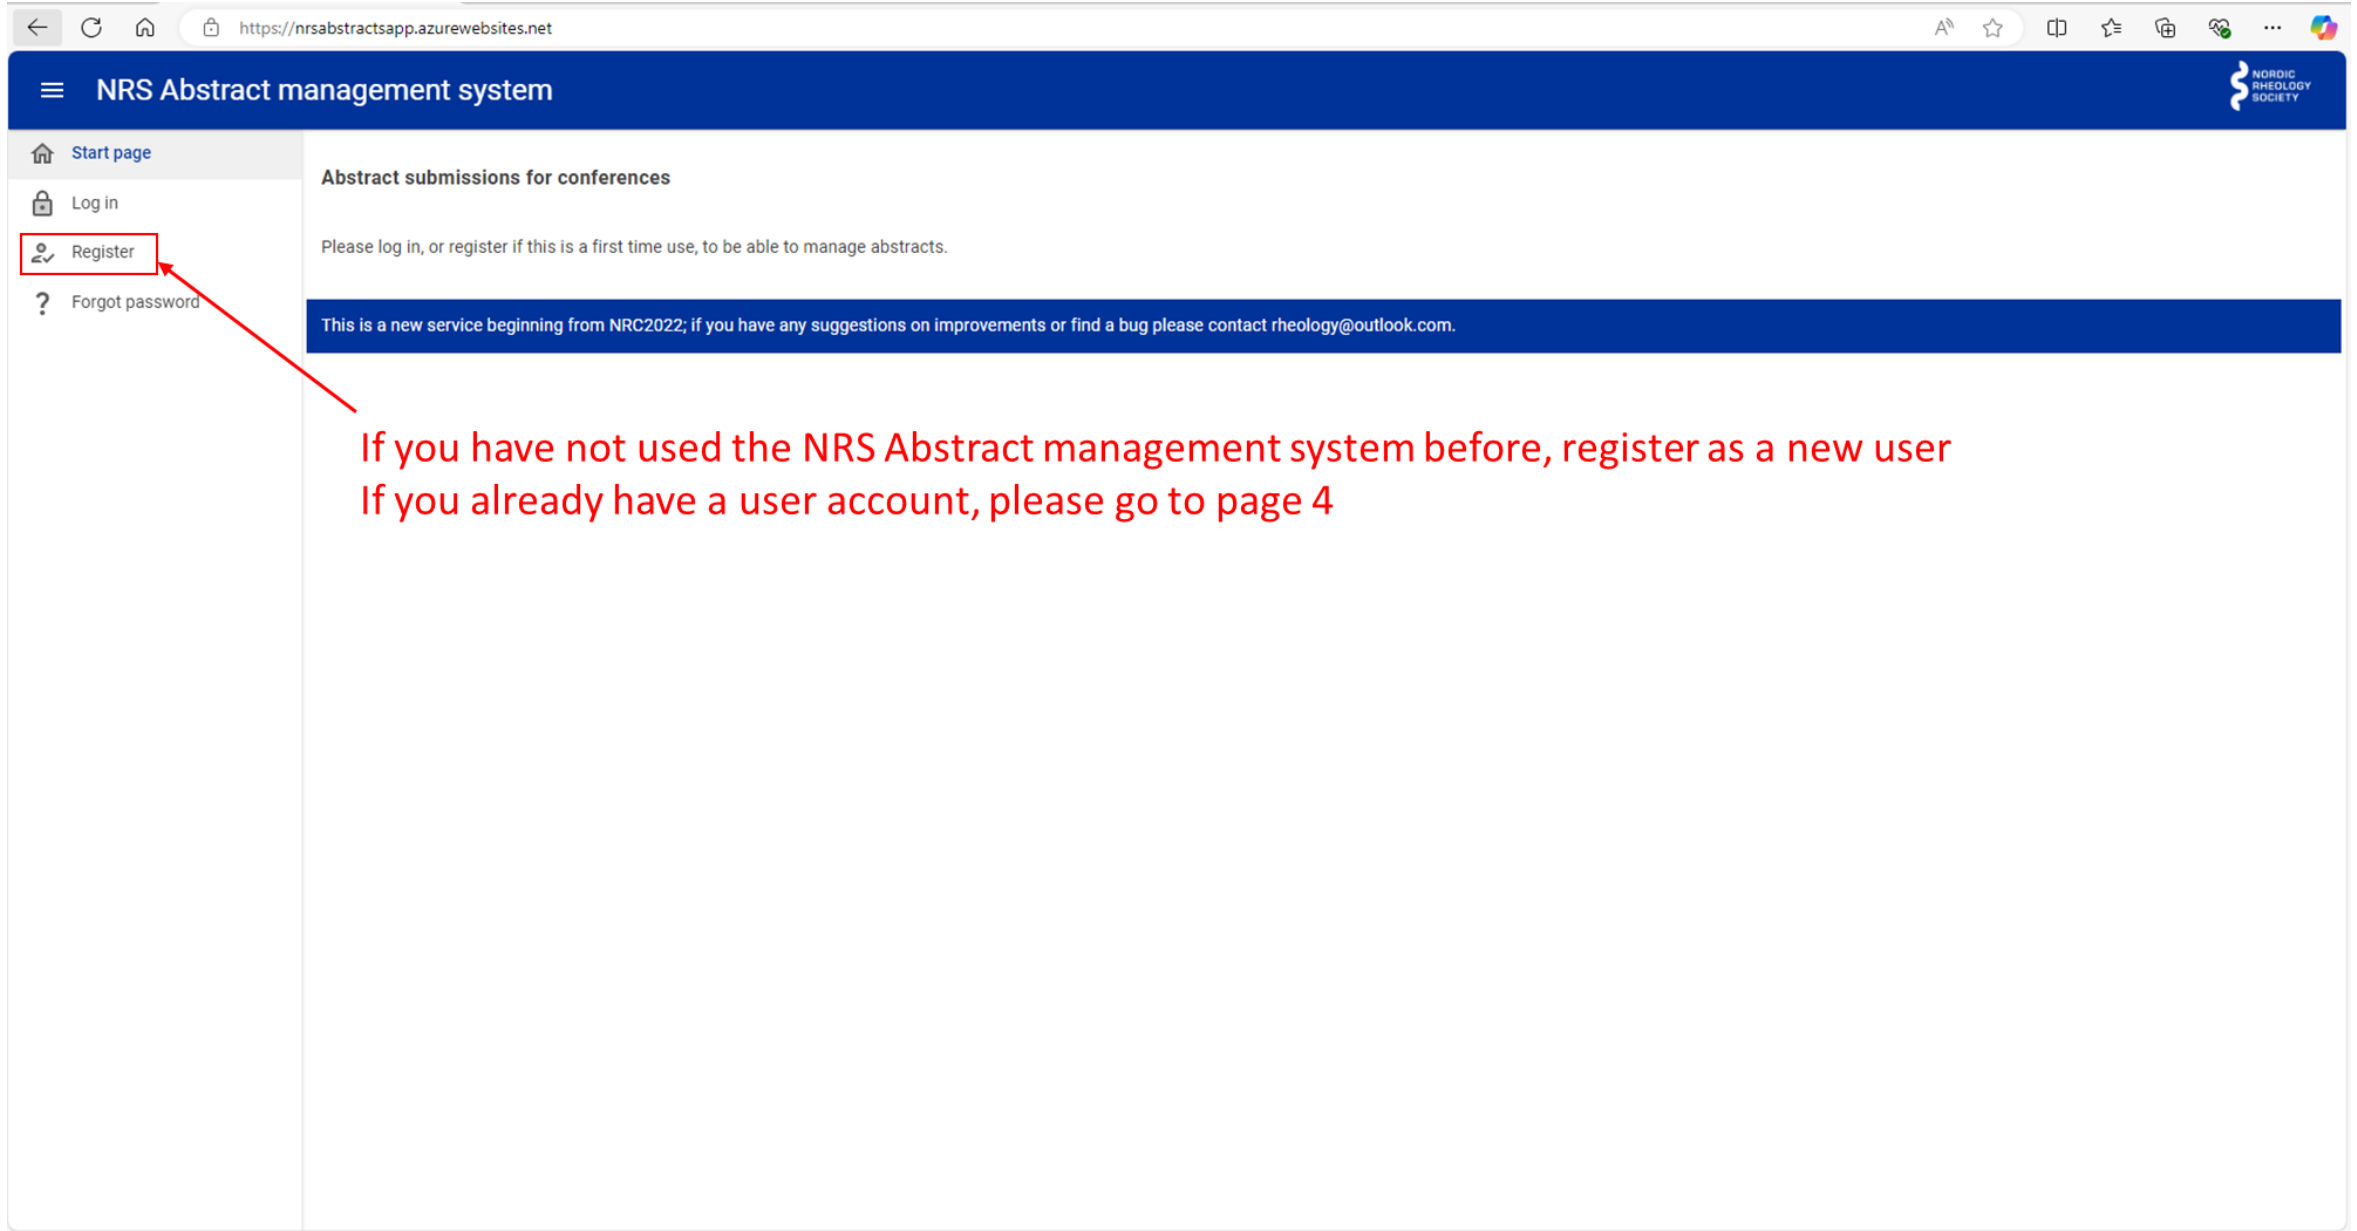

Manuscripts of both oral presentations and posters must be prepared using the ATNRS Template and submitted both as a DOC file and a PDF file to the NRS AT Editor with the subject line 'NRC2025-manuscript'.

The manuscripts must be between 2-8 pages in length. Make sure that you use "press quality", embed all the fonts, and set the paper size to A4 when you convert the document to PDF. If the guidelines are not followed exactly, your paper will be returned to you for correction.

LaTeX and iWork Pages are also available, please contact the NRS AT Editor.

The ATNRS does not retain copyrights for the submitted manuscripts.

2. Register as a new user if you have not used the system before

6. Create a new abstract

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://nrsabstractsapp.azurewebsites.net>. The page title is "NRS Abstract management system". A left sidebar contains navigation links: Start page, Conferences, Sessions, Abstracts, Logs, Change password, and Log out. The main content area displays instructions for abstract submission. A red box highlights the text "Abstract submissions for the Nordic Rheology Conference 2024 (5/29/2024 - 5/31/2024)". A red arrow points from this box to a red text annotation: "Please ignore that the conference information is currently not up-to-date, your abstract still goes to the 2025 conference". Below the instructions, a red box highlights the word "here" in the sentence "To add a new abstract go to Papers and click the plus sign or click here." A red arrow points from this box to another red text annotation: "Create a new abstract here".

Before starting abstract submission you need the following:

- Name, affiliation, city and country of all authors.
- An abstract of less than 3000 characters including spaces and HTML tags. The title must be less than 200 characters (no HTML allowed in titles)
- The abstract may contain references in the APA-format but no illustrations. Special characters are limited to those available by HTML tags.
- A designated presenter and a designated corresponding author.

The deadline for submission is 2/19/2024 for oral contributions and 4/1/2024 for posters.

Please follow the given format for each field. The default instruction is to capitalize only the first letter of words as in for example: Ann Smith, Department of Rheology, Copenhagen, Denmark, Rheology in Complex Flow Geometries.

To add a new abstract go to Papers and click the plus sign or click here.

If you have any questions or comments please contact the conference organisers.

Please ignore that the conference information is currently not up-to-date, your abstract still goes to the 2025 conference

Create a new abstract here
